Carles Balsach

Sr. Product Manager @Sansoft // Passionate Game Development Strategist

Barcelona, Catalonia, Spain

Summary

I'm a seasoned gaming Product Manager with over a decade of experience in the gaming sector with a background in computer science and data science. I've had the privilege of working on top-performing titles, leveraging my technical skills and knowledge to drive success. My passion for gaming is matched by my love of technology, and I'm always seeking to combine the two in innovative ways. I'm a driven individual who is eager to bring my experience, creativity and expertise to any project I work on.
